BLOOD STAIN ON NEGRO'S CLOTHES

Local Officers Asked to be on Lookout for Man Suspected of Murder.

WANT NEGRO WHO WAS AT ORANGE SATURDAY

Los Angeles Detective Agency Starts an Investigation in This Section

Today City Marshal Jernigan got a telephone message from a detective agency in Los Angeles asking him to be on the lookout for a negro who might be the negro suspected of having murdered Mrs. Rebecca Gay, a Christian Science practitioner, in Los Angeles Friday evening.

The agency in Los Angeles said that it had information that a negro had been hanging around the depot at Orange, and that there were blood stains on the negro's clothing. The agency's theory is that the negro is the one who murdered the Los Angeles woman.

The man who telephoned the message here from Los Angeles gave no information as to where the agency got its information.

There are but few negroes in Santa Ana, and local officers would have no difficulty in spotting a stranger among them. However, no colored stranger was to be found here today.

After receiving the message today, City Marshal Jernigan renewed having seen a negro walking north on Main street near the Santa Ana creek bridge yesterday afternoon.

2200 COLONISTS IN LOS ANGELES

Come from East With Savings of Lifetime to Invest in Golden State

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—Estimates furnished at the offices of the general passenger agents of the three transcontinental railroads, entering Los Angeles place the number of colonists who arrived here yesterday at 2200.

On a basis that 20 per cent of those who take advantage of the tall colonist rates from the East remain to make their homes in Southern California, this means that the population of the Southland was increased yesterday by 1540 home builders and possible investors.

Railway officials say that most of those who come to California to establish their homes bring with them their savings of a lifetime.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Reports that the national baseball commission may cancel the world's championship baseball series between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics as a result of certain players announcing their intention to write stories, or lend their names, to stories, were heard from all sides here today. The players declare they will go through with their contract despite the ruling. The national commission says the contracts must be cancelled. At Monday's meeting of the commission and players it was stated today, they will be notified to cancel the contracts. The penalty is to be a heavy fine. McGraw of the Giants and Mack of the Athletics will be ordered to see that the players obey the order. It is reported if signed articles appear after the first game, the remainder may be cancelled.

UNLUCKY MAN IN STOCK DEALS

When Sulzer Bought, Stock Went Down, Said Members of Brokers' Firm

WAS DEEPLY IN DEBT TO BROKERS WHEN ELECTED

Books in Court—Judge Ruled Favorably to Sulzer on Veto Power Point

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Melville Fuller of the brokerage firm of Harris & Fuller testified in the Sulzer trial today that Gov. Sulzer was a consistently unlucky speculator. He said that every time Sulzer bought a security it seemed to depress its price, as the stock invariably crumbled. The majority of his testimony referred to Sulzer's stock dealings before his election.

On January 1, 1912, he testified, Gov. Sulzer owed the firm more than $48,000. After his election the governor paid the brokers $21,000, he testified. He said the governor disregarded the calls for margins and on June 15 Lieut. Commander Louis Joseph of his staff assumed his account.

Just before recess the charge was made that Harris & Fuller had manipulated their brokerage books to conceal the debt of $40,261 owed by Gov. Sulzer. After Fuller had identified the firm's books they were offered as evidence. Attorney Krezel, for the prosecution, said:

"We intend to prove that a certain entry was manipulated. We expect to show that some figures in these books are incorrect, and to demonstrate that changes were made after Sulzer had been elected governor of the state and after impeachment proceedings had been threatened."

Fuller had previously testified that Sulzer's account had been transferred after he was elected governor, from the books to the general charge account.

Rulings for Sulzer The charge that William Sulzer used his veto power corruptly to influence legislation was shot to pieces before the impeachment court yesterday in a series of rulings by Chief Justice Cullen. The result was the shattering of the prosecution's case under the seventh article of impeachment.

Washington Americans and Gavy Cravath for the Philadelphia Nationals. Johnson's pitching record shows a percentage of 825. Out of 44 games played by him he has won 33, lost 7, tied 1, and the other three games were games in which he pitched to end a game for some other pitcher.

Cravath is away up near the head of the list of batters. His batting average is .344. Danbert of Brooklyn leading him in the National League with an average of .349. The big Santa Ana batter has played 125 games, been at bat 448 times, made 79 runs, 154 hits, 10 stolen bases and 9 sacrifice hits.

Johnson's batting average is .272, having 10 runs and 34 hits out of 125 times at bat.

It is reported that Walter Johnson is going to spend the winter in this county, and that he will pitch some games for the Brea team. Nothing concerning Johnson's proposed visit is known here, the only information on the subject coming from the Los Angeles Tribune, which says:

"Walter Johnson of the Washington Americans will winter in the Santa Ana valley and will play winter ball with the Brea team, which will be again in action after an absence of a few weeks caused by the loss of their suits. All their uniforms were destroyed by a fire which threatened to wipe out one of the best ball towns in the south."

Two or three days ago Clerk J. C. Burke got a letter from Johnson, who sent him a clipping from the Washington Post containing Burke's article on the early days of Walter Johnson, the article being syndicated and appearing in the Washington Post the same day it appeared in the Los Angeles Times. Johnson said he had answered a thousand questions concerning the article and its writer. He sent his regards to the boys, but said nothing about coming to California this winter.

Burke heard from Johnson's grandfather at Venice that Johnson would be here this winter. Cravath will spend his winter at Laguna Beach as usual.

Concerning Johnson's pitching record the Philadelphia Inquirer says: "Walter Perry Johnson, the cannon-ball hurler of the Senators, has a wonderful record to date among the pitchers of the major leagues, and he bids fair to better it before the curtain drops on the big season October 5. Johnson stands head and shoulders over all other pitchers this year, which has been the greatest of his career. According to averages compiled to Thursday, the big Swede has hurled in forty-four games for Washington, of which thirty-three have been victories, seven resulting in defeat and one ending in a tie, the other three contests simply being parts of games in which he went into the game to relieve some other toiling teammate and which was either credited as a win or a defeat for the other hurler. Of the number of games Johnson has shut out opposing teams eleven times and of his seven defeats four have been blanks registered by some rival moundman.

"Johnson's average of .825 is the best set of figures for either league among those pitchers who have labored in more than a couple of games. His nearest competitor in the American is Houck, of the Macks, who has an average of .789, while Demaree, of the Giants, and Humphries, of the Cubs, are the two nearest National figures, with .824, but their records are far from being as great as Johnson's. The Senators' pride has fanned 227 men in the forty-four contests and dead-headed but thirty-nine to first, while 217 hits have been made by fortunate batters in their stands at the rubber. Following Houck, Falkenberg, of the Naps, is the next best American hurler, with twenty-two wins and eight defeats.

OHIO SENDS GOSPEL OF GOOD HEALTH ALL OVER STATE

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 30.—Ohio recently adopted a new and unique method of carrying the gospel of good health into the smaller communities of the state. The work is still going on today. An interesting and educational traveling health exhibit is going the rounds of the smaller towns, one of the features being graphic illustration of the high death rate among babies with propaganda containing hints and suggestions for cutting down the rate.

An electrical apparatus on which five small cradles revolved on a belt was set so that on the second revolution the fifth cradle disappeared, indicating that the baby death rate today is about one in five before the second birthday. Ignorance of simple hygienic precautions and methods of feeding, it is explained, is responsible for a great majority of these "one-in-five deaths."

CORK LEGGED PITCHER WHO WINS HIS GAMES

Barney Pelky, old-time pitcher of the American League, insists that two legs are not necessary for a pitcher. In proof of this he sends in a photograph of A. G. Murphy, pitcher for the coal mine teams of Farmington, Mo., his home. Murphy is employed as a bookkeeper in the mines. Largely because he is such a fine pitcher, the miners insist he be given light employment, so he may help them win games. His left leg is made of cork, and he pitches with his left arm.

But Barney thinks he is good enough for the big leagues. He is twenty-two years old, and weighs 165 pounds, writes Barney. His record in the Farmington and Bonne Terre Southeast Missouri League is as follows:

1910—Won 20 games, lost 4; 1911—Won 12 games, lost 5; Helena and Farmington League.

1912—Won 32 games, lost 8; St. Edward, Nebraska, and Crystal City League.

1912—Won 22 games, lost 3; Farmington, Mo.

Average strike-outs per game, 11. "This fellow," writes Barney, "has never been hit for more than 7 hits per game. He is a glutton for work, and has worked this year several times every other day. I note that you ask me whether I am coming back as an infielder. I will say that I am playing the infield some down here and some fine day I am liable to be back as an infielder."

ORANGE, Sept. 30.—Miss Ina Ainsworth, whose wedding to Carl A. Schmidt will be celebrated Wednesday evening, was the guest of honor at a dinner party given Saturday evening at the Craemer home on North Olive street by Miss Helen Craemer and Miss Alma Grumm.

Brilliant decorations featured the affair. The reception room was gorgeously arrayed in red, streamers of hearts extended from the center rooms, while the light globes were disguised to resemble huge red chrysanthemums. Poinsettias were clinging to the lace curtains.

The dining room was very daintily prepared for the occasion. A white wedding slipper hung from the chandelier over a huge bed of geraniums, forming a heart-shaped center piece. Tiny wedding slippers, filled with almonds, were favors at each place. Pretty hand-painted place cards were used, decorated uniquely with two pink roses, from the center of each of which there appeared the faces of the bride and groom elect, tiny stamp photos.

SENTENCED TO SAN QUENTIN

Worthless Checks Take Former Oil Wells Resident to State Prison

Ray Perry was yesterday sentenced to two years in San Quentin. Sentence was passed by Judge Willis of Los Angeles, before whom Perry was taken on a charge of having violated his probation.

A year or two ago Perry was at work at Olinda, where he had been employed for a number of years. Dissipation ruined him. He got into trouble in Los Angeles through passing a worthless check. He was put on probation and given a chance to make good.

Instead of taking advantage of the opportunity offered, Perry continued his course. In a saloon at Newport Beach he cashed a forged check. This was nearly a year ago. He got out of the country and went to Fresno county, where he was taken up on a misdemeanor charge and sent to jail. While in jail he was recognized on a description sent from this county, and was returned.

Attorney J. C. Burke appeared for him. The authorities learned that Perry was under probation in Los Angeles county, and he was taken there on the original charge. Yesterday Judge Willis ordered him to San Quentin for a term of two years. The judge stated that Perry's youth alone saved him from a severer sentence.

Recently Perry's wife, who lives near Fullerton, secured a divorce from him.

Contractor Gets Site for Camp; Duke is Held to Answer

ORANGE, Sept. 30.—Today a representative of Robert Sherer & Co., railroad construction contractors, was here and secured a site in the Santiago creek for a camp for a gang of men that will work on the building of the electric line extension to Orange. He made arrangements for water for twenty-five head of mules. He said that the men would go into camp next Thursday.

That means that work on building the line will commence at once.

Held to Answer Today Judge Fullerton held Calvert Duke to answer on a charge of running down Everett Thompson with an automobile, proceeding on his way without stopping to render aid to the injured person. The evidence against Duke is strong. His two companions were witnesses against him. They are Vernon Thompson and Lantz Goddickson. They said Duke was driving the automobile with poor lights and Thompson, who was on a bicycle, was not seen until it was too late to avoid running him down. Duke did not stop. He started immediately for Yuma. He was arrested at Oceanside.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

HIS INNOCENCE IS FINALLY PROVEN

No Question Now But What Pimental Did Not Steal Nelson's Bicycle

It took Bernabe eighteen months to prove his innocence, but he has proven it beyond a doubt. Pimental is as happy as a man can be.

About eighteen months ago a bicycle belonging to a young man named Nelson of Santa Ana was stolen. The frame of it was found in a bicycle ridden by Pimental, who was arrested by Deputies Squires and Law.

Pimental declared that he had bought the bicycle for $10 from a man named Aguilar at the poolroom opposite the post office. Pimental convinced Law that the story he told was correct. The case was dropped, and Pimental went forth declaring that he would find the man Aguilar.

Law had almost forgotten the case, but the facts came quickly to his mind Saturday night when he was called upon the telephone by Pimental. In short, Pimental's report was that Aguilar was living at Delhi. Law and Pimental went to the place, but Aguilar was gone to Santa Ana. That was the report given the officer at the house. Law searched the vicinity, and found Aguilar in the P. E. depot. "That is the man," said Pimental.

Aguilar was taken to jail, and yesterday evening he admitted that he had stolen the bicycle. Unfortunately the case against him is outlived. Aguilar, whose first name is Andres, has agreed to pay Nelson for the loss of a part of his bicycle and to repay Pimental $10.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

10 YEARS TO STATE PRISON

Laguna Beach Burglar Guilty and Was Sentenced at Once

Found guilty of burglary in the first degree, T. G. Gonzales was sentenced to ten years in San Quentin. Sentence was passed by Judge West after a jury, out but a few minutes, brought in a verdict of guilty.

Gonzales moved into Laguna canyon about a year ago, and it was not until his advent that a record of years was broken at Laguna Beach. The record was that houses were never broken into and thefts were unknown.

Last spring cottages, locked up for the winter, were broken into and articles stolen. Gonzales was suspected, and Fred Trefren and others from Laguna Beach raided his ten and found a lot of stolen goods. Gonzales was making a business of burglary, peddling the articles stolen by him.

He was prosecuted upon one act, the burglary of a cottage belonging to Mrs. Elizabeth Collins of Orange. Deputy District Attorney Koepsel put on his evidence in a forceful and convincing manner. Attorney George Evans of Anaheim, appointed by the court to defend Gonzales, put Gonzales on the stand. Gonzales testified that he bought the articles from a relative who had owned the goods a long time and had had them shipped in from some other place. This evidence in the face of the positive identification of the property by Mrs. Collins and others failed to convince the jury.

SCENE IN "THE TRAFFIC"

AMUSEMENTS

The Traffic
Coming from San Francisco and Los Angeles after a six week engagement in each city, in which it played to crowded and enthusiastic audiences, "The Traffic," a four act play by Rachel Marshall, presented by a competent and good company of well known players, will open at the Grand Opera House Sunday, Oct. 5. Those who have witnessed this play agree that it is the most dramatic composition that has ever been offered to the American playgoer. It deals with industrial truths that lie at the bottom of the big sociological questions of the day. Problems of the underworld are discussed in a startling manner. The story is said to be intensely human, interesting and reasonable, founded on facts of record and with the hallmark of realism all over it. Florence Bell, an emotional actress of exceptional talent and temperament; Irene Oatrin, William Brewer and others of equal excellence, who Manager Newman has engaged, will appear at the Grand Opera House, give assurance of artistic quality.

At the Auditorium
The bill on at the Auditorium Theater for the first of this week is not only one of the best that has been given in this popular show house but is one of the funniest that Santa Ana has had the privilege of seeing in a long while.

The pictures are splendid and include an extraordinary two-reel feature picture entitled "Morgan's Treasure," as fine a picture story as has ever been given here. There are several other splendid reels. The vaudeville part of their program is fine and will continue for tonight and tomorrow night.

A. G. Schlusman, billed as "That Santa Ana Boy," was the first to appear, and whether he is a Santa Ana boy or some other boy, he "makes good." His act appeals especially to those who like the better class of music and particularly to Germans, as he sings in their language.

Simmons and LaVerne are a very clever Irish team and very funny. The girl has a good voice and sings several popular songs in a way that calls for hearty applause. Her partner plays the violin and does some humorous talking stunts that set the audience in a roar of laughter.

Harry Fishes and Co. in a comedy bicycle act are about as funny "as they make 'em." From the time they come on the stage until they go out they kept the audience screaming with laughter at their foolishness and stunts at the daring of their act. They are one of the Pantheon acts. Altogether it is a splendid show.

What Prof. Chas. T. Edwards says about a trained dog:

A mind-reading dog, a French poodle, named "Hector," was discovered in Los Angeles recently. The animal was trained to read the master's mind and to use numbers as well as a child. Mr. Edwards, head of the nature study work of the Los Angeles city schools, after hearing of the dog's wonderful mental development, went and examined the dog to see if it was correct. After an hour's experiment and investigation, Prof. Edwards was convinced that the dog's mind was wonderfully developed. There are also three other well trained dogs at the show.

Alice Babe Lewis, singing and dancing and impersonations, who created such a great hit here a while back, also the Hawaiian musician, who was engaged to three curtain calls. Also three reels of pictures go for Tuesday and Wednesday night.

GOVERNORS IN CLEVELAND TO WEST FAVOR UNIONS BUILD MODEL VILLAGE

Four Executives on Record as Praising Efficiency of Unionism $2000 that Would Otherwise Cost $3000

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 30.—Governors who are not "heartily in favor" of trades unionism were about as scarce as hen's teeth at the recent conference of the National House of Governors. Miners in the southern Colorado coal fields were threatening to strike for union recognition while the conference was in session and talk of labor unions was therefore timely. Governors Stewart of Montana, Carey of Wyoming, Hodges of Kansas and Chief Clerk Kerr of the Utah executive's office were asked if coal mining in their states had been hampered because the miners were organized and all answered in the negative.

"Unionism is one of the vital forces of industrial development, and one of the most humane agencies in the world today," declared Governor Stewart.

"Our coal miners have been organized so long," said Governor Carey, "that I cannot remember when there were any unorganized coal fields. Unionism has not retarded coal mining in Wyoming. It is one of the biggest assets the state has in regard to the coal mining industry."

"Unionism has greatly helped Kansas," commented Governor Hodges, "and I believe in it as thoroughly and firmly as I believe in anything. Unionism in Kansas has helped the state and it has greatly protected and benefited the miner without harming in the slightest the interests of the operators."

"Our coal miners were organized before we got statehood," declared Chief Clerk Kerr, "and coal mining is one of our biggest money making industries."

Personal and Local

An interesting Mothers' meeting was held at the home of Mrs. U. Sid Lemon yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. The meeting was largely attended and an enjoyable and helpful program was given. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The topic was "Purity," and Mrs. H. C. Lawrence, chairman of the committee for mothers' meetings, arranged the following numbers: Reading, "Literature and Vice," Mrs. W. C. Brumby; Reading, "Safeguard to Mothers," Mrs. Lillian Kemp; J. P. Fraser handled the topic of "Purity Sunday, November 9." Several musical selections were given during the afternoon.

A fact of great interest to his many friends here is that, at the meeting of the Los Angeles Presbytery held in Pasadena last week, Robert Burns McAuley of this city was received under the care of the Presbytery as a student for the Gospel ministry. Mr. McAuley is in the second year at Occidental college, and promises to be one of the bright and brainy young ministers of the Southland. He spent his boyhood days in Anaheim, having always made good in the many manly attempts that he has undertaken.

Rev. F. M. Mitchell was in attendance at the meeting of the Los Angeles Presbytery that was conducted at Pasadena Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mrs. C. C. Spence and her mother, Mrs. M. E. Lovett, will leave tomorrow for Sacramento, where they will enjoy a two weeks' visit with relatives in the northern city.

Rev. J. H. Hunter, of the Los Angeles Bible Institute, will occupy the pulpit at the Presbytery church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Hunter will be here in attendance on the Christian Endeavor convention, and doubtless many will be delighted to have the opportunity to listen to him.

A. C. Pearson is in Sibley, Iowa, having been called there by the death of a relative.

Miss Irene Mills, a student at U. S. C. of Los Angeles, spent Sunday here with her parents on North Los Angeles street.

It. H. Williams and family, who have made Anaheim their home for over a year, will leave soon for Oregon, where they intend to locate.

Russell Baker, employed at the Edmiston grocery, suffered a severe injury Monday morning when, while riding his bicycle near the corner of Center and Los Angeles streets, he was run down by an automobile driven by J. D. Lavin. The front wheel of the auto ran upon Baker, who had been thrown on his back. In attempting to stop the auto Lavin killed his engine, leaving one wheel of the machine on Baker's body. Bystanders ran to his rescue and removed the heavy weight as quickly as possible. Just how serious the injury is cannot be determined for a day or two.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 30.—The city of Cleveland, home of the three-cent street car fare and other similar successes along progressive municipal government lines, today is contemplating another venture which will greatly benefit the "ordinary person" if it works out as planned. Cleveland is going into the real estate business.

When Cleveland gets down to work under the new city charter, which has been called the last word in progressive principles, the city will undertake the establishment of a model village or a community of homes for workingmen that will stand as a great American model of the ideal American home. The city owns a ninety-three-acre tract of land near the outskirts. This will be laid out in lots and streets to form what is hoped by the planners to be a perfectly mapped out city in embryo. Arrangement and naming of streets, parks, and every detail that goes to make up the "perfect city" will be planned by the best experts. Homes that would be sold by a private real estate corporation for at least $2,000, will be erected on the plots. They will be sold to 500 Cleveland workmen for $2,000 and the terms of payment will be within reach of any steady, industrious worker. It has not yet been decided whether or not the land will remain with the city or be turned over to a stock company. Mayor Baker favors the former idea.

Two town planning experts of national fame—Shurcliff of Philadelphia, and Schindler of Cincinnati—have been engaged to start the project. Architects, landscape artists and "model village" experts all over the country will be asked for competitive suggestions. The best of these ideas will be crystallized into the Cleveland "model city."

THE USE OF ICE IN HOMES

The average American family is paying about four times as much as it should for ice and ice-boxes. This fact, of interest to every householder, is the conclusion drawn by Dr. John R. Williams from an investigation made in Rochester, N. Y., and reported in a recent issue of The Journal of the American Medical Association. According to Dr. Williams, the problem of pure milk is only partly solved with the introduction of clean milk into the home. The cleanest and purest milk will soon become foul if proper means for its preservation are not used. Bacteria multiply with great rapidity in a temperature above 50 F., while below that temperature their growth is held markedly in check. These facts are of importance to mothers and housekeepers, also to milk commissioners and dealers, because charges of "bad milk" are often unjustly made against those interested in pure-milk work.

In the study of the market milk problem in Rochester, it was found that nearly half of the families of that city endeavor to get along without ice. In such homes condensed milk, proprietary milk and dipped milk purchased at the nearby store are mainly used. Five sections of the city, representing different classes of people, were studied. Upward of a hundred homes in each district were visited.

It was found that during the warm months of the year milk is delivered during the night or early morning hours before the family is awake. When no box is provided for receiving it, it is left on the door-step exposed to heat, dust and the attentions of domestic animals. Few homes occupied by working people are equipped with boxes for receiving milk. In an investigation on this point, of 504 homes examined, only eleven had milk boxes. Houses in the well-to-do sections are better equipped, 359 out of 411 having proper facilities for receiving milk. The exposure of milk to warm air for three hours or more is sufficient to raise its temperature at least 10 degrees.

The usual means of preserving perishable fresh foods in the home is to store them in a cool place. When a refrigerator is not used, either the cellar or living room is used. It was learned that 2,243 homes of 5,431 examined did not use ice. It is probable that half the homes in the city rely the entire year on the cellar or pantry for their food preservation, and that more than three-quarters of the homes deny themselves the use of ice, excepting for a few weeks during midsummer. Not one living-room was found having a temperature below 60 F., nor was one cellar discovered having a temperature below 55 F. It is evident that these rooms during the warm months of the year, at least, are not sufficiently cold to protect food from decomposition.

In the study of ice-boxes, out of 243 examined, only 163 had a temperature below 50 F. The other 143 registered above that temperature and were therefore worthless for preserving food. Better refrigerators were found in the homes of the well-to-do; nevertheless, 45 per cent of these had temperatures above 50 F., while nearly 70 per cent of those found in the homes of the working people exceeded that temperature.

The inefficiency of these refrigerators is due to their defective construction and insufficient insulation. Most of them are wooden boxes built of half-inch lumber, lined with galvanized iron or zinc. The walls vary in thickness from 2 inches to 4 inches. The space between the metal lining and the wooden sides usually contains insulating material, as paper, felt or mineral wool. In many of them nothing more is to be found than a sheet or two of paper.

The rate paid by the consumer for ice varies according to the amount used, the amount taken at each delivery and the ability of the purchaser to pay for it in advance. Poor people living near the railway tracks get it at the cars for 20 cents per hundred pounds. If it is delivered to their homes they pay from 40 to 75 cents per hundred pounds.

The cost of harvesting and storing natural ice is so variable that it is difficult to determine it even approximately. It probably costs less than $2 per ton. It costs between $2 and $2.25 per ton to make artificial distilled water ice. The consumer pays the dealer the difference between $2.25, the cost of manufacture, and $8.50 per ton, or $6.25 for distribution. Thus the cost of distribution is nearly three times the cost of manufacture.

The data gathered in this investigation

Just California

By JOHN STEVEN McGOARTY

This poem was read by the author at a luncheon given in his honor at the St. Francis, San Francisco, by the Portola Festival Committee:

Twist the land and the deserts,
Twist the wastes and the waves,
Between the sands of buried lands
And ocean's coral caves,
It lies not east nor west,
But, like a scroll unfurled,
Where the hand of God hath flung it,
Down the middle of the world.

It lies where God hath spread it,
In the gladness of His eyes,
Like a flame of jeweled tapestry,
Beneath His shining skies,
With the green of woven meadows,
And the hills in golden chains,
The light of leaping rivers
And the flash of poppled plains.

Days rise that gleam in glory,
Days die with sunset's breeze,
While from Cathay, that was of old,
Sail countless argosies;
Morns break again in splendor
O'er the giant, new-born west,
But of all the lands God fashioned,
'Tis this land is the best.

Sun and dews that kiss it,
Balm winds that blow,
The stars in clustered diadems
Upon its peaks of snow,
The mighty mountains o'er it,
Below, the white seas swirl—
Just California, stretching down
The middle of the world.

NEWSY NEWS FROM NEW YORK

By Carlton Ten Eyck

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Popularity rests on astonishing foundations in these bizarre days when all roads of crime, misfortune and adventure seem to lead to the vaudeville stage or the lecture platform, which are first cousins.

The other night they had a lecture in the Episcopal church at South Norwalk, and policemen guarded all the entrances, though the affair was under the auspices of clergymen. The reason? "Bald Jack" Rose, the New York gambler, chief "squealer" of the Herman Rosenthal case, was the lecturer and he professed to be afraid that some of the New York gunmen would try to "get him" as he occupied the church pulpit.

"What Makes Up the Underworld" was the shiny pated crook's topic and the lecture was listened to by 500 of the churchmen, their wives, daughters and sons. The lecture was to raise money to pay off the church debt, and "Bald Jack" Rose donated his services. Gambler Herman Rosenthal was assassinated in Forty-third street in the glare of Broadway in June of 1912, and the killing started a police graft scandal that is still festering.

On the testimony of Rose, that he transmitted to them the plans for the murder and that he paid them for the butchery, Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and the four gangsters, Lefty Louis, "Gyp the Blood," "Whitey Lewis" and "Dago Frank" are now on the life side of "the little green door" in the Sing Sing death house, awaiting electrocution.

Rose went scot free and has been a hero ever since. He has lectured in New York and surrounding towns. A serial story by him, telling of his sordid life as a gambler and thug of the underworld took two whole pages every Sunday for weeks in one of the New York newspapers. It was Jack Rose's own refusal and not the fault of the sensational managers that the "squealer" did not go on the vaudeville stage.

Another scintillating example of amazing popularity is Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, whose husband's thrilling fight for liberty in Canada and New England has been of intense public interest for more than a month. For weeks Mrs. Thaw has been the headliner at Hammerstein's vaudeville roof garden, in a dancing turn, and her popularity is entirely due to Thaw's doings.

Even the most lenient critics admit that warrant the following conclusions:

1. The temperatures of cellars or living-rooms in dwelling-houses are not sufficiently low during the warm months of the year to protect milk and other perishable foods from decomposition. An efficient refrigerator is a sanitary necessity.
2. Most of the refrigerators in common use are almost worthless and grossly uneconomical.
3. If more economical methods of ice manufacture and distribution were employed, the cost of ice to the consumer could be materially lowered.
4. If to this saving were added that which would result from proper ice-box construction, refrigeration vastly superior to that now found in the average home could be had for at least one-fourth the present cost.

Editorial Edibles

Jerome at last admits that he has had a jolt.

Congressmen complain that they are being worked too hard. Another achievement for the administration!

After a while the redoubtable Faurot will prove that Hans Schmidt is the man who struck Billy Patterson.

It looks as if the country may bank safely upon the passage of the currency bill.

The King of England has received the Order of the Bath, and every youth, remembering the familiar Saturday night summons, will sympathize with his Majesty.

If Thaw is not returned soon, Matewan may have to make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors.

Pittsburg's smoke costs it $10,000,000 a year, and even at that Pittsburg people do not really enjoy the smoke.

Those new green hats for men strikingly resemble the old fashioned $1.50 derby in its third winter.

It is time for the householder to that Mrs. Thaw is only a mediocre dancer, and that her partner, Jack Clifford, guides her through all the steps, and that if she were other than the "heroine" of the Stanford White murder, she could not play the "big time" in vaudeville. The public had almost forgotten Mrs. Thaw until her husband made his melodramatic escape from the asylum, but her press agent was quick to seize the opportunity and the public stood for it.

Thinking people could see no possible legitimate connection between Thaw's doings and those of his estranged wife. Mrs. Thaw's press agent gave out pages of "interviews" and the roof garden "turned 'em away" nightly. Such is fame.

Indications of a lifting of "the lid" lately has delighted those Gothamites who trail Broadway. When the late Mayor Gaynor left for Europe, the acting mayor immediately granted 23 all-night dramshop licenses to Coney Island restaurants for Mardi Gras week. When the late Mayor Gaynor was appealed to for such licenses, he refused them, remarking that those "who could not guzzle enough before 1 a. m. would better not guzzle at all."

About the same time at least two of the White Light resorts near Longacre Square which were forced to close for lack of business during Police Inspector Dwyer's rigid enforcement of the 1 a. m. closing law, reopened for business.

The managers, when they closed, explained that the early evening patronage was not sufficient to enable them to continue and their reopening gave the impression that the vigilance of the police has been somewhat relaxed.

Lugurs of several other reopenings of night restaurants have been current in the "upper tenderloin," since Mayor Gaynor's death. Formerly the police were under strict orders to keep people moving on Broadway in the neighborhood of the 40's, and so well did they carry out their orders that for a time men were not allowed to stand in front of hotels, and on several occasions "standees" were arrested and fined a dollar in the Men's Night Court, but nowadays men may be seen as thick as flies, standing along the curbs and around hotel and restaurant entrances from Thirty-fifth to Forty-sixth streets.

The police have even abandoned their perfunctory "You'll have to keep moving, gent." Altogether, the Great White Wayfarers see a ray of hope.

SWITZERLAND GREATEST OF "DIVORCE NATIONS"

BERNE, Switzerland, Sept. 29.—The little Swiss Republic now marches at the head of the world's divorce columns, having captured the "blue ribbon" of divorce statistics from the United States, which has thereby fallen into second place. According to figures published here today by the government, there were 43 divorces to every 10,000 population in Switzerland and in the last twelve months as against 42 to every 10,000 in the United States. Switzerland is the "Reno of Europe."

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IS YOUR LAXATIVE

Best Liver and Bowel Cleanser and Stomach Regulator Known

Get a 10-cent box. Put aside—just once—the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the indigestible, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Bilioussness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.—Advertisement.

GOV. HOOPER CALLS LEGISLATURE IN AN EXTRA SESSION

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 30.—Governor Hooper has called a second extra session of the legislature for October 31 to consider the passage of a bill to enable him to enforce prohibition throughout the state. In his proclamation he urged the people of every county to "rise above the narrow confines of partisan limitation and assemble in the county seats and elsewhere to instruct, encourage and support the governor and assembly in restoring the majesty of the law."

The first extra session called for the purpose adjourned without complying with the governor's wishes but only after a series of gatherings in which weapons were repeatedly drawn.

STRIKEBREAKERS' EXCITING RIDES

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 30.—The striking copper miners and strikebreakers clashed repeatedly today in the Calumet district. In two fights outside of the town of Ahmeek firearms were being used freely. A train carrying strikebreakers for the Ahmeek Mining Co. was stalled by ties across the tracks. The miners claim the strikebreakers opened fire when the train stopped. Others claim the strikers were responsible. Bullets smashed the train windows. The train returned to Calumet, the strikebreakers later reaching Ahmeek in automobiles after another exchange of shots on the road. So far as known none were hurt. The strikebreakers at Mohawk quit today and the mine fires went out. The town is without water.

CEBRATED BIRTHDAY

Santa Ana Business Man Was Pleasantly Honored by Unexpected Guests

Without giving him a hint of their intentions, some twenty of the friends of D. P. McBurney walked in on him last evening and he and his wife were quietly taken in their case after the final meal of the day. The invaders were headed by W. R. McBurney, who had given away the secret of his brother's birthday date, which fell on yesterday. He had arranged the jolly surprise party, and the good friends arrived very heartily in the plan of invading D. P.'s in celebrating his natal day.

The evening was passed merrily, with the playing of games and diversions while away the hours. Not the least pleasant part of the delightful surprise lay in the gifts presented to Mr. McBurney. These were valued because of the friendly feeling that prompted their bestowal.

The visitors had with them a generous supply of delicious ice cream and cake that was served late in the evening.

Those in the surprising party were Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smiley, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. May, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. SURPRISE PARTY

Pretty Affair Given in Honor of Mrs. Louise Thompson at Mayfield Home

A pretty little surprise party was given yesterday afternoon in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Louise E. Thompson. The affair was given by Mrs. L. A. Mayfield at her home on French street and was so carefully planned that Mrs. Thompson had not the slightest suspicion of it. To say that she was surprised does not begin to express her feelings, as she thought no one knew the date of her birthday.

Mrs. Thompson had been to Huntington Beach and on her return found a roomful of friends awaiting her with best of birthday wishes. The house was tastefully decorated in Tacoma blossoms and beautiful red roses. The guests had with them their needlework, and enjoyed music on the Victrola, also vocal and piano selections. Mrs. Chas. Johnson sang several pretty songs and Miss Florence Brace added pleasing piano numbers.

After a delightful time in the parlor the guests adjourned to the dining-room, where delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Thompson received a number of birthday gifts.

The guests included the honoree, Mrs. Thompson; Mesdames Brace, Eberlein, Tidball, Limbach, Chas. Johnson, S. M. Hill, Mayfield; Miss Hinton, Miss Brace and Miss Von Essen.

CITIES MORE MORAL DECLARES REPORT

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—The old theory that farming communities are more moral than cities received another shock here today when statistics were published showing that fifty-nine per cent of the children born in the kingdom of Saxony last year were illegitimate. The greater percentage of the births were in farming districts, the parents being farm laborers. Next in order came lawyers, physicians, state employees, preachers, army officers and school teachers as parents of illegitimate children. The report published today shows that in the five years from 1906 to 1910, 35,773 children were legitimized in Saxony through the subsequent marriage of their parents.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls Try This! Makes Your Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; and incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

MISSOURI TEACHES FARMERS BY MOVIES

Instructs in Poultry Raising; Pictures Show Steps from Egg to Chick

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 30.—Missouri is today engaged in the role of instructor in poultry raising. State authorities are teaching the farmers the best way of raising poultry, especially by incubation. By means of the inevitable moving pictures which are being shown in all sections of the state where poultry raising is engaged in, the state is teaching every detail from the gathering of the eggs to placing them in the incubators, care of the eggs during the incubation period and on down to care of the chick at hatching time and until it has grown to a full sized chicken.

The farmers of the state have shown great interest in the moving picture series. A lecturer is in charge and ready to answer all questions that the farmers may ask at the conclusion of the instructive picture show. Every place at which the instructions have been given so far the farmers have been enthusiastic in their commendation of the system.

WOMEN'S FADS AND FANCIES

By Margaret Mason

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Hats of a feather flock to the millinery shops this season, for fine feathers certainly make fine bonnets. Chapeaux that boast no portion of a bird's anatomy are rarer than a day in June. In spite of the laws banning alpacas and discouraging the wholesale slaughter of songsters, tail berranians still clamor for gay plumage and insist on having a feather in their caps. Another essential is that your hat must be of velvet, black preferred. Variations of plush, velours, beavers, panne velour and broche are also much favored, but the black velvet shape is the queen. The little hat is still in the ring, and perky close-fitting shapes turning off the face, turbans and tams are very smart. Almost all the hats that boast any brim at all are turned up at some distracting angle, at the back, on one side, or even smacked up smartly in front in a manner trying indeed to most physiognomies. An oriental turban of black velvet with a straight stiff ostrich feather tuft in front and a jet bridge swinging below the chin is guaranteed to make the wearer look like the pride of the harem.

Alongside of this a tam-o'-shanter of soft green sage velvet with a peacock feather jutting pertly from one side, vies with a quaint Empire poke bonnet of ivory and rose brocade, a choux of rose aigrettes on one side and a trailing streamer of black ribbon. Hobnobbing with this dainty creation is a conventional sailor shape of taupe velour with a trimming of tiny shaded yellow wings banding the entire crown. A little round buttercup of a hat in amethyst velvet has a single butterfly of shaded purple feathers perched buoyantly at the back of the brim. Indeed, the butterfly, whether in feathers, lace, tulle, velvet or metallic brocade is a fad of the moment as is a chic hat trimming—quite the butterfly of fashion as 'twere.

You can readily see from these representative fall models that there is a wide latitude if not many wide hats in your choice of fall chapeaux. It is simply the shape and fantasy is placed that makes or mars the autumn hat of 1913.

A new and hideous touch on many of the black velvet models is a binding of shiny black patent leather around the brim. It is ugly and incongruous enough to be immensely popular with perverse Dame Fashion. The only trimming tolerated in lieu of feathers seems to be a high standing halo of wired lace outlining the crown of many a black velvet shape or else the reaching of tulle so omnipresent this summer.

The mad struggle for novelty even the heretofore extinct bandeau has been dragged forth from oblivion, and many a flat hat of lace is set up on a band of black velvet to stimulate this perverse and insatiable fashion. Goura, paradise and nudie have not outworn their popularity by being worn out all summer, and together with wings, ostrich plumes and quills feather many a hat. In the most brilliant shades come these feather trimmings as if to offset the somber black velvet grounds of the inevitable black velvet shapes. Emerald, green, royal blue, brick red and all shades of yellow will lighten up many an already light head.

The bridle on bonnet shapes and turbans seems to have a triangle hold on Miss La Mode's swan-like throat, and the tan, ringing all the changes, appears with or without brim, turned up at all angles, loose and floppy like a bag or stiffened and wired into a flat pancake shape. Before the fall is well advanced, however, it is safe to predict that the early taking up has cheapened it and robbed it of its saving grace of exclusiveness and originality. Some few large hats, of course are seen, a concession to the picture-hat-type of femininity. The smartest ones have brims very short on one side and wide on the other. The wide side turns up at an acute angle. Ostrich plumes enmasse are their favorite trimmings, touches of fur or the wired black ribbon trimming will soon be used but as yet nothing but the fluff of feathers seems to have come to a head. There are just three things to insist on when you sally forth to purchase your autumnal headpiece. It must be small, of black velvet, and have a feather in it.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET
Butter went up 1 cent yesterday, the present price being 35 cents; jobbers' price, 38 cents wholesale to the trade. There is little indication that there will be an immediate material change in the butter market, deflecting the present quotation either upward or downward. Eggs remain at the same figure, and the supply is unusually scarce in the local market. There has not been a transaction in eggs on the Produce Exchange for some time. Yesterday 42 cents was asked for fresh ranch eggs, with no bids.
Most of the more staple varieties of vegetables are demanding higher prices in the market than a few weeks ago. This is the more noticeable in the quotation on green peas and green and wax beans. The latter are now selling as high as 9 cents per pound, whereas but little over a month ago the supply was so plentiful that both green and wax beans were a drug on the market. Green corn has advanced to as high as 65 cents per box, containing three dozen, or $1.75 per sack. Cucumbers also are bringing as high as 75 cents per box. The supply of both chili and bell peppers has become smaller during the last few days, with a substantial advance in the market price.
Grapes are still arriving in large quantities, but the dealers announce that the effect of the late warm weather has been materially felt by the vineyardists throughout the state. It is thought, however, that within a short time the supply will be increased, the effect of the warm weather having been dissipated.

PACKERS PAYING LESS--BEEF HIGHER

Beef Trust Boosts Selling Prices While Buying Stock at Less than Last Year

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Although a bulletin of the United States department of labor, now being scattered throughout the country by the government, asserts to the public that the retail price of meat as gone up 16 per cent in the last fifteen months, the beef trust is buying and has been buying cattle at Chicago at an average of 1 1/2 cents a pound cheaper than a year ago.

For example, in the trade week ended September 29, 1913, top native beef cattle, live weight, were bought at Chicago by the packers at $7.10 to $9.30 per 100 pounds. The packers in the week ended September 21, 1912, paid at Chicago for the same grade of beef, $8.40 to $11 per 100 pounds. The figures quoted for both weeks are for steers weighing from 1350 to 1500 pounds.

The difference between the top prices is $1.70 per 100 pounds. This means that the packers are getting a bullock of average size—say 1400 pounds—at $23.80 below the price they paid a year ago. Wholesale beef prices now at New York and elsewhere vary from one-half cent to a cent a pound lower than a year ago for the week ending September 2.

The difference, equal to $14 per bullock, is pocketed by the packers as an extra profit.

ANCIENT GAULS WERE WEALTHY AS GOLD RELICS SHOW

ROME, Sept. 30.—Professor Daldosso, who in November, 1912, discovered at Eborac the Necropolis of the Senonian Gauls, who, under their chief Brennus, captured Rome in 390 B. C. and received a ransom of 1000 pounds of gold, for retiring from the city, has made a number of excavations this year at the same place and obtained important results.

Professor Daldosso found six amulets of solid gold and necklaces and bracelets, besides many objects of bronze, silver, amber, ivory and glass. The enormous quantity of gold ornaments discovered shows, apparently, that the inhabitants of this region were very wealthy.

A notable find was a wooden casket covered with bronze and gold, of a unique shape, which is the first specimen of this kind that has been found on the site of the Necropolis, which is on cultivated land.

The professor makes his excavations by means of deep plowing.

Prof. A. J. Elmer will open his studio of music at 204 1/2 East Fourth St., Oct. 1, and will be prepared to give lessons on the violin, piano, clarinet, cornet, saxophone and flute, as well as vocal lessons.
